AGATA Data Policy

The policy is defined by the ASC and is available here:

http://npg.dl.ac.uk/agata_acc/AGATA_Data_Policy.html

From the policy document:

This policy pertains to the ownership, curation, access and exploitation of the experimental data collected and/or stored by the AGATA project ...

Access to the data is to be controlled by the AGATA collaboration.

The AGATA spokesperson will delegate this control to the experimental collaboration via the primary contact for the initial period of exploitation.

This initial period will be under the control of the AGATA spokesperson, typically 5 years. This period can be extended upon request to the AGATA spokesperson. The data for exploitation will be made available to the wider AGATA collaboration after this period.
